Back to school

The corona measures restrict the use of the Saxion buildings and facilities in the buildings. Check out the do's and don'ts in order to be able to study and work together safely.

Basic rules

- Stay at home for 10 days after travelling to or returning from countries where an orange or red travel advice applies.
- Stick to the 1.5m distancing rules.
- Do not shake hands.
- Wash your hands frequently, for minimally 20 seconds.
- Follow the indicated routes.
- Avoid crowds.
- Travel to Saxion by bike or on foot as much as possible.
- Follow the RIVM and Saxion guidelines.
- Work or study at home as much as possible
- If you are experiencing cold symptoms and/or fever, stay at home and get tested. Call 0800-1202 to make an appointment. If someone you live with is exhibiting symptoms, you should also stay home.

Upon entering the building

- There is one revolving door to be used as entrance and one that is to be used as exit.
- Disinfect your hands by the disinfection station.
- Walk directly to your classroom. The routes to walk are clearly indicated so that we can maintain a safe distance together.
- Of course you can use the toilet.

Education

Check your schedule

- In your schedule you can see whether or not you have lessons.
- Pay close attention to the start and end times of classes.

In the classroom

- The classrooms have been laid out in such a way as to conform to the 1.5m distancing rules.
- Do not change the layout of the room.

You have finished your lesson(s)

- Try to get out of the building as soon as possible.

Catering and other facilities

- Cleaning of toilets and other touchpoints has been intensified. Give cleaners room to work.
- Coffee and tea dispensers are available for use.
- The restaurant (open as per 1 September) opening times will be restricted to between 10:00 and 14:00.
- Orders can be made via the 'Oh appy day' app; place your order before 10:00 and you can pick up your order at a pick-up point of your choice between 12:00 and 12:30. Scan the QR code to make an account.
